The Department of Revenue is looking for an energetic and enthusiastic individual who enjoys the diversity of working in both an office environment and out-of-doors. To perform successfully as a Commercial Appraiser, you must be self-motivated with the ability to work independently and as part of a team. You must possess a strong work ethic and a positive attitude, and enjoy working with, and for, the public. The position requires math and computer skills and the ability to communicate effectively and respectfully with the public, as well as with your team of co-workers. The ability to research, understand and apply the laws, rules, policies and procedures that govern the work of the Department of Revenue, as well as, the ability to make sound decisions and be accountable for them, is essential.

The duties of a commercial appraiser include responding to taxpayer inquiries, contacting taxpayers to ensure compliance, and promoting education of the property tax process. Daily work involves the discovery and valuation of property, research and verification of residential and commercial sales information. This is accomplished by review of current improvements or measuring of new construction of homes, and accessory buildings and interacting with taxpayers. Other duties involve gathering and verifying data to assist in the mass appraisal valuation process and may include representing the department in appeal hearings or participating in the dispute resolution process. This position requires a valid driver's license and involves significant travel throughout the year.

The above competencies and degrees of proficiency are typically acquired through a combination of education and experience equivalent to a bachelor's degree in business, accounting, economics, public administration, real estate, construction technology, or related field. The position is required to obtain Montana certifications in commercial, residential, and agricultural appraisal and gain proficiency in the use of the PVAS system. The position is also required to maintain a valid Montana driver's license. This position requires at least one (1) year of experience in property tax appraisal, assessment, auditing, or related field. Other combinations of relevant education and experience will be evaluated on an individual basis. It is important that all previous work experience is listed.

The State offers its employees a great benefits package such as three weeks paid vacation, sick leave, full medical, dental and vision coverage along with life and disability insurances! This is a great career opportunity with a deferred compensation program and retirement benefits! The department offers additional training opportunities for all employees!

A typical average compensation package for an average salary of $35,000/yr is:

Wages:	$35,000.00
Benefits:	$ 7,080.00
Retirement:	$ 2,415.00

Total Average Wage Package $44,495.00
